

The Paper will analyze the experiences, institutions and international culture related to conflict resolution in Latin America highlighting relations between global and regional instances