

Curriculum Vitae

Karolien van Teijlingen

Personal information

Name: Karolien Marte van Teijlingen
E-mail: k.m.vanteijlingen@cedla.nl
Date of birth: 19 December 1987
Place of birth: Utrecht
Nationality: Dutch

Education

- 2014 PhD course at CERES, the Dutch Research School for Resource Studies for Development
- 2010-2013 Research Master in International Development Studies University of Amsterdam
- Graduated Cum Laude in February 2013
- 2007-2010 Bachelor in Human Geography at the University of Amsterdam
- Graduated in August 2010 with an average grade of 8.0
 - Minor in International Development Studies and Latin American Studies
- 2007-2009 Bachelor Spanish Language and Culture at the University of Amsterdam
- 70 credits earned in language proficiency courses

Research activities and experience

- 2014-present PhD candidate at Amsterdam Institute for Social Science Research of the University of Amsterdam and the Centre for Latin American Research and Documentation in Amsterdam, The Netherlands
Research topic: The governance of the subnational mining-development nexus: A political ecology of two cases at the mining frontier of the Brazilian and Ecuadorian Amazon
- 2013-2014 Prins Bernhard Fellow at the Núcleo de Altos Estudos Amazônicos of the Universidade Federal do Pará, Brazil.
Research topic: Geographies of development, natural resource governance and the extractive industries in Pará, Brazil
- 2012-2013 Young Excellent Scholarship at Centre for Latin American Research and Documentation (CEDLA) in Amsterdam, The Netherlands
Research topic: Mining conflicts in Latin America, particularly Ecuador
Other activity: Support to the organization of the NALACS/CEDLA Conference on Cultural and Natural Resources of Latin America in December, 2012
- 2012-2013 Master Thesis and fieldwork
Research topic: Qualitative research titled “Negotiating Values and Development at the Mining Frontier: Private, Public and Civil Society interactions over El Mirador mine in South East Ecuador” (graded 8.0) , including a 4 month fieldwork in Ecuador

- 2010-2011 Research Internship at Asylum Access Ecuador, NGO promoting refugee rights
Research topic: The labour rights and experiences of refugees and asylum seekers in Quito, Esmeraldas and San Lorenzo.
Other activity: Producing advocacy material, reporting to donor agencies, design and facilitation of workshops, field visits to refugee populations
- 2009-2010 Bachelor Thesis and Fieldwork
Research topic: Quantitative and qualitative research Thesis titled “‘ Todo ha cambiado’: road construction and livelihood changes in the Ecuadorian Amazon” (graded: 9.0), including a 3-month fieldwork in a Kichwa community in Napo in Ecuador

Software experience

Extensive knowledge of MS Office, GIS MapInfo, GIS Idrisi, ArcGIS, ATLAS.ti (qualitative data processor) and SPSS (quantitative data processor),

Languages

Dutch	Mother tongue
English	Fluent
Spanish	Fluent
Portuguese	Proficient
French	Basic
German	Basic

Publications

Teijlingen, van K. M. and Hoogenboom, B. B. (forthcoming) Debating ‘Buen Vivir’ at the mining frontier: the conflict around ‘El Mirador’ mine in Ecuador. Accepted by Journal of Developing Societies.

Teijlingen, van K. M. (2014) Serra Pelada en de wip van fortuin en misère: feit en fictie rondom de mineralenkoorts in de Braziliaanse Amazone. In: Simon Thomas, M. (eds) Latijns Amerika in beeld: visies op een bewogen regio. Cuadernos del CEDLA no. 29.

Teijlingen, van K. M. (2014) Extractive industries, power struggles and the battle of ideas. UNRISD Young Scholars Think Piece Series, 1st edition. Access online: <http://www.unrisd.org/ystp-vanteijlingen>

Teijlingen, van K. M. (2011) Een weg naar ontwikkeling? AGORA, issue 27, number 4. Access online: <http://www.agora-magazine.nl/wp-content/uploads/2012/09/AGORA-2011-4-Platteland.pdf>

Scholarships and Awards

2014: Master Thesis Award 2013 by the Netherlands Association of Latin American and Caribbean Studies for MSc thesis titled "Negotiating values and development at the mining frontier: Private, public, and civil interactions over El Mirador mine in South-East Ecuador".

2013: Scholarship by the Prins Bernhard Cultuurfonds for a research project on geographies of development, natural resource governance and the extractive industries in state of Pará in cooperation with the Núcleo de Altos Estudos Amazônicos of the Universidade Federal do Pará, Brazil.