Letter of invitation for Antonio Trujillo Rivadeneira
Passport number: A4755428

As the President of the Memory Studies Association (MSA), I am pleased to invite Antonio Trujillo Rivadeneira, Latin American Faculty of Social Sciences (FLACSO-Ecuador) to attend the MSA Ninth Annual Conference, titled "Beyond Crises: Resilience and (In)stability", which will take place at Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic, from July 14 to 18, 2025.

Antonio Trujillo Rivadeneira will be presenting a paper titled: Memoirs of a Coolie: the construction of new territorialities through the oral history of the Chinese diaspora in the Guayas River Basin, Ecuador. during the conference.

The Memory Studies Association is a professional organization that brings together scholars and practitioners working in memory studies, as well as those engaged in museums, memorial institutions, archives, the arts, and other fields of remembrance. The MSA employs a rigorous peer-review process to select conference presentations, ensuring a high academic standard. Antonio Trujillo Rivadeneira's abstract was competitively reviewed and accepted by the international Program Committee, reflecting the scholarly significance of their work.
